

I hope the law concerning telemarketing is not relaxed. It is a real bother to receive calls from these people. If I want something, I will call them. The privacy law has been working well in Indiana. Please don't take it back to where it was. Thank you
Richard L. Leslie